

Yi-Guwahati holds tea tasting session

BUSINESS REPORTER

GUWAHATI, Feb 3: Young Indians, Guwahati Chapter, organised a tea tasting session – Apeejay Tea - Tea with Yi, in association with Apeejay Tea Ltd, here on Sunday.

Razi Khan, Director- Sales & Marketing, Apeejay Tea Ltd, introduced the audience to the history of tea in Assam before conducting an elaborate tea tasting session, sharing his expertise with the tea enthusiasts, a press statement said.

Speaking about Assam tea, Razi Khan said, “Nothing can replace Assam tea as it has an inherent quality which comes from the soil. The Brahmaputra adds unmeasurable value to the soil contributing greatly to the briskness and bright yellow colour to your cup of tea.”

Thirty varieties of tea from the best gardens of Assam were presented at the tea tasting session along with a wide range of herbal teas from Typhoo, India’s premium brand in the tea and wellness category, the statement said, adding that the star of the session was the Valentine tea, which is a special blend created by the master blender Razi Khan.

Since Assam is popular as a major tea producer, Yi, Guwahati Chapter, curated this learning platform about Assam tea, the statement added.
